

STATINTL

Wednesday,
November 7
1:00 - 1:15

Page 1

Introductory Remarks by [REDACTED]
Director of the Office of Personnel Administration

1:15 - 1:45

AID and Internal Defense (S)

[REDACTED] SA/ID

Special responsibilities of AID in supporting U.S. objectives in assisting underdeveloped societies to defend themselves against subversive exploitation of the instabilities associated with economic development. Brief resume of [REDACTED]

STATINTL

1:45 - 2:00

Questions and Answers

2:00 - 2:45

Historical Background of Subversive Insurgency

Mr. [REDACTED] A/PA

STATINTL

Forces in modernizing process which promote internal conflict. The essential relations between social unrest and economic advance. Factors which have tended to unleash the forces of conflict. Brief resume of events leading to [REDACTED]

STATINTL

2:45 - 3:00

Questions and Answers

Friday,
November 16
1:00 - 1:45

U.S. Overseas Internal Defense Policy

Mr. Robert Macchling, G/PM (State)

The principal elements of U.S. strategy to attenuate the social instabilities deriving from the modernization process; to prevent these sources of internal conflict from becoming seeds of violence; to avoid their exploitation by forces inimical to the U.S.; and, if necessary, to defeat subversive insurgency. The country team approach.

1:45 - 2:00

Questions and Answers

OFFICIAL USE ONLY

Friday

November 16 (Cont.)

2:00 - 2:45

1. Communist Goals, Organization and Strategy in Underdeveloped Areas (S)
2. The Role of CIA in Counterinsurgency (S)

Mr. [REDACTED]

1. A brief review of communist strategy, particularly in fomenting and exploiting internal conflict in modernizing societies.
2. A discussion of the mission and capabilities of CIA in support of the U.S. program in counterinsurgency.

2:45 - 3:00

Question Period

Wednesday,

November 21

1:00 - 1:45

AID Counter-Insurgency Program Planning

Mr. [REDACTED]

STATINTL

The strategy underlying AID's new programming process; an assessment of long-term planning, self-help, etc., as aids to internal defense capabilities; public safety program potential; and preclusive programming.

1:45 - 2:00

Questions and Answers

2:00 - 2:45

A Summing Up

Mr. [REDACTED]

STATINTL

A re-examination of the lecture series against the backdrop of a selected case study or studies

2:45 - 3:00

Questions and Answers

OFFICIAL USE ONLY